Live the life of the rich and famous at "The Pinnacle". With stunning picturesque hinterland, valley and mountain views and some coastal city views, you will never stop feeling blessed living the dream with native wildlife popping in to visit from kangaroos to koalas. The kids will love living here too with an abundance of room to play ball and run amok with the fur babies of the family.

Your guests will be enchanted immediately upon entering via the elegant foyer and stairway before them. The light filled home is of the Hamptons styling with polished timber floors, high ceilings, plantation shutters and elegant light fittings throughout with C-Bus Automated Lighting Control System. Nothing has been left out here and it is an absolute pleasure to inspect this magnificent home. The chef's kitchen is a real family hub with delightful French door access to the garden.
